Gerald L. K. Smith Papers, Box 1, 1938

While Americans fought amongst themselves, the Japanese Army crushed countries in the Pacific. Distracting everyone with warfare, the Nazis began in 1942 their massive deportations of the Jews to six death camps in Poland. The plan to murder all the Jews of Europe was called the "Final Solution".

If we stopped attacking each other and started to work together, we could help suffering people who need us!
